STATEMENT

(In the space below, please provide the showing of unavoidable delay recited in paragraph 8 above.)

PLEASE SEE ATTACHED STATEMENT

(Please attach additional sheets if additional space is needed)

[Page 4 of 4]

Now comes Patentee, by and through their Attorney, Meyer & Associates, LLC, and states that the delay in paying the 12th Year Maintenance Fee (including surcharge) was unavoidable since reasonable care was taken to ensure that the maintenance fee would be paid timely and that the petition was filed promptly after the patentee was notified of, or otherwise became aware of, the expiration of the patent.

In support of the above statement, the following communiqués, instructions, docket sheets, and notices are hereby submitted:

1. On or about November 10, 2011, Patentee was notified by Meyer & Associates, LLC that the 12th Year Maintenance Fee period was open with a due date of April 10, 2012, enclosing a copy of the USPTO Maintenance Invoice (Exhibit 1).
2. On January 12, 2012, Meyer & Associates, LLC again reminded Patentee that the 12th Year Maintenance Fee was due no later than April 10, 2012, referencing the November 10, 2011 Notice. Patentee's representative Ms. Michelle Mariani, CEO of SoothSoft Innovations Worldwide, Inc., responded that she would pay the USPTO invoice directly which was acknowledged by Meyer & Associates, LLC (Exhibit 2).
3. On March 22, 2012 Meyer & Associates, LLC again contacted Patentee's representative, Ms. Mariani, and reminded her of the 12th Year Maintenance Fee due date and informing her that Meyer & Associates, LLC did not intend to pay the Maintenance Fee. Ms. Mariani responded that she would pay the USPTO Invoice directly with her credit card per her previous instructions (Exhibit 3).
4. Further, on March 22, 2012, Meyer & Associates, LLC clarified to Ms. Mariani that a surcharge of $75 would attach if the 12th Year Maintenance Fee was not paid prior to April 11, 2012 (Exhibit 4).
5. On April 16, 2012, Meyer & Associates, LLC again contacted Patentee's representative, Ms. Mariani, in regard to the 12th Year Maintenance Fee, indicating that Meyer & Associates, LLC's docket audit showed that the Maintenance Fee had not been paid and informed her of the applicability of the $75 surcharge charge and the absolute deadline to pay by October 10, 2012. Patentee's representative responded that she duly calendared the deadline (Exhibit 5).
6. On July 13, 2012, Meyer & Associates, LLC received from Patentee's representative a Letter of Authorization instructing Meyer & Associates, LLC with regard to payment for foreign and U.S. patents and trademarks. Absent from this list and in accordance with Patentee representative's prior representation that she would pay the Maintenance Fee directly to the USPTO, Meyer & Associates, LLC was not instructed to pay the 12th Year Maintenance Fee (Exhibit 6).
7. On or about July 29, 2012, Patentee's representative was sent a complete Maintenance and Renewal Docket, including fees for outstanding matters. Of specific note is the first item dealing with the 12th Year Maintenance Fee and setting out in bold, highlighted print the absolute deadline for payment (Exhibit 7).

8. Again, on or about August 20, 2012, a revised Docket was sent to Patentee's representative showing outstanding annuities and maintenance fees for U.S. and foreign jurisdictions through December 2012, including the instruction status for each item. Of note is the first item under U.S. matters referencing the 12th Year Maintenance Fee along with the absolute due date of October 10, 2012, indicating no new instructions had been received by Meyer & Associates, LLC with regard to payment of this matter (Exhibit 8).

9. Finally, on or about September 18, 2012 (less than a month from the final due date), Meyer & Associates, LLC sent Patentee's representative a revised Docket through December 2012, again predominantly showing Patent No. 6,128,795 12th Year Maintenance Fee, including the final deadline, with no new instructions.

Given all of the notification and clear instructions from the Patentee's representative that she would pay the 12th Year Maintenance Fee directly to the USPTO and receiving no new instructions, Meyer & Associates, LLC did not timely pay the 12th Year Maintenance Fee and applicable surcharge. Meyer & Associates, LLC did not learn that Patentee's representative had not timely paid the Maintenance Fee until it received a Notice of Abandonment via Private PAIR on November 5, 2012. Upon receipt of the Notice of Abandonment, Meyer & Associates, LLC immediately contacted Patentee's representative who maintained that she was confused as to the entity making the actual 12th Year Maintenance Fee payment due to the large number of items in her portfolio.

This Petition, along with the required maintenance fee as set forth in Section 1.20(e)-(g) and the surcharge as set forth in Section 1.20(i)(1), were filed promptly after the Patentee's representative was notified by Meyer & Associates, LLC of the expiration of the Patent 6,128,795.

Early and favorable action on this Petition is respectfully requested. Any questions should be addressed to the signatory attorney.

Respectfully Submitted,

Date: November 10, 2012

Michelle, you can pay that invoice directly by credit card. I can walk you through the website to get to the right place. The newly re-designed website for USPTO is absolutely awful!!! It takes three times longer to get where you need to be and it is not very user friendly. So when you are ready, give me a call and we will pay the fee together. :)

Hi Michelle-

I believe Lee left a voice mail for you in regard to the 12th Year Maintenance Fee which is due on or before April 11, 2012 in order to avoid any USPTO surcharge. I also sent you an email containing this and other very important items requiring your close attention.

We need to inform you that we do not intend to pay the 12th Year Maintenance Fee without having funds from SoothSoft in our account or SoothSoft credit card. Also, we need to inform you that Lee and I will be out of town April 9th through April 13th and therefore will not be able to take care of that matter during these days even if we had funds from SoothSoft.

I know you are busy, Michelle... But I want to remind you about this patent one last time so that you can plan accordingly.

Best Regards,
Alla

Subject: U.S. Patent 6128795 - 12th Yr Maintenance Fee

Hi Michelle-

I noticed that you did not pay the maintenance fee for the above referenced patent. Therefore, a surcharge in the amount of $75 is now applied to the USPTO Invoice (attached for your information). Please make a note on your calendar that the absolute deadline to pay this maintenance fee is October 10, 2012.

I will monitor this event as well and if the fee is not paid in September, I will send you a final reminder.

Best Regards,
Alla
